

Anacortes 2050 Contest Rules

By entering the Anacortes 2050 Contest, you agree to the following rules:

Contest entries will be accepted no later than September 29, 2019. To enter, email your image as an attachment to Anacortes2050@CityofAnacortes.org. Include your name and contact information in the body of the email.

Only one entry per person or email address will be accepted. City employees may not participate in the Contest.

Images must be in one of the following file formats: .jpg, .jpeg, .bmp, .tiff, .pdf, .png. The image may contain only one view of the future Anacortes. The maximum file size is 3MB. Images must be no smaller than 200 pixels on any side and no larger than 1024 pixels on any side. Files larger than this may be rejected without notice to the entrant. The City may resize an image to 1024 pixels or some other power of two (2, 4, 8, 16, 32, 64, 128, 256, 512, 1024, etc.) on the largest side, and for this reason submitted images should likewise be sized to a power of two on each side or the resizing will distort them.

Entries that are damaged, delayed, or misdirected are not the City's responsibility and will not be accepted. In the event of a dispute regarding authorship, the City will regard the entry as having been submitted by the email account holder at the time of entry. The City may modify or terminate the Contest without liability if technical problems, hacking, bugs, viruses, or other problems make the Contest difficult or impossible to complete as planned.

By entering the Contest, you promise that your entry is your own original work, has not been copied from someone else, and does not violate any copyright law.

Entry image files become the property of the City of Anacortes and will not be acknowledged or returned. You retain copyright to the image, but in exchange for the chance to win the Contest, you grant without compensation or attribution, your irrevocable permission to the City and those authorized by the City to reproduce, edit, transmit, display, publish, and otherwise use the image with or without your name for any purpose in any media.

Except to the extent prohibited by law, City excludes from these official rules all conditions, warranties, and terms implied by statute, general law, or custom. Each entrant releases and discharges the City and any person associated with the development or administration of the Contest from any and all liability in connection with the Contest, including without limitation, legal claims, costs, losses or damages, demand, or actions of any kind.

The conclusion of the Contest will be part of a larger gala evening at the Anacortes Public Library that will be open to the public. The entries will be displayed in scrolling fashion on a large screen and attendees will vote for winners.

Winners may be required to sign an affidavit of eligibility, a release of copyright and liability, and permission to the City to use the image. If the winner is a minor, a parent or legal guardian may be required to execute these documents and to give written permission for the minor to receive the prize. Failure or refusal to provide these writings will disqualify the entrant.

The City may disqualify any entrant who violates these rules.
